

How To Make Up A Class

When a student misses a class day, they have two ways to make it up. First, they are welcome to attend another class location for the day they missed free. Second, they can view DVD's of the missed day for a fee which varies according to which class they have missed and how much of it. The DVD's were filmed in LIVE classrooms taught by Mr. Diciccio.